In Case You Missed It...

In a first for us, one of our graduate teams was featured on the CBS Evening News. The story focused on Purdue's research of our warrior-canine teams, and showed January 2018 graduates Carlos & Hannah as proof of our program. Watch it by clicking on the image:

#WisdomFromWarriors

Many of our graduates share profound reflections on their relationship with their service dog to help other veterans struggling with PTSD. We started calling these reflections "Wisdom from Warriors" and sharing them on social media. Here's the most recent quote:

"If you're feeling something or you need the help, ask or have somebody ask for you because it definitely doesn't make you a weaker person. It takes a stronger person to ask for help." - Tony & Chief, 2019 K9s Graduates

Training Update

This impressive class is graduating tonight! This is a photo from their last day of training, in historic St. Augustine. You can see them graduate live on our Facebook page at 6 p.m. EST.
