January 2021 News

In Case You Missed It...

On December 2nd, 2020, the US Department of Transportation ruled that emotional support animals are no longer considered to be service animals, and only trained dogs are considered to be service animals. Consequently, Service Dogs and their handlers will now receive essential - and well-deserved - accommodations during air travel.

K9s For Warriors heartily applauded the ruling in this statement found on our website.

Camp K9 News

Our headquarters in Ponte Vedra, FL is no longer "Camp K9." Named after our founder, it is now The Shari Duval K9s For Warriors National Headquarters.

Shari Duval founded K9s For Warriors in 2011, and to date the program has paired 646 Warrior-K9 teams. This was a way to honor our founder for her lifesaving vision that has changed the lives of rescue dogs and veterans alike.

Dog Tales

Two Army veterans from central North Carolina, who'd never met before, just happened to end up as roommates in our November class! A Charlotte, NC TV station picked up their story after they graduated. Watch this fun virtual reunion of Mac and Pamela (left and center, left) by clicking the image above.
